

2013 Virginia Winery Guide Photography Contest

Calling all photographers! It's that time of year again when we start the design process for the annual Virginia Winery Guide. We are inviting friends of Virginia wines to be a part of the process.

If you have any fun photographs from a recent adventure at a Virginia winery, then please submit them for the contest. Or, if you need inspiration to go out and visit a Virginia winery while the fall foliage is at its peak, then this is a great excuse to get out and take some scenic pictures.

The winning photograph will be featured in the 2013 Virginia Winery Guide (possibly on the cover of the guide), and the winner will be given full credit within the guide. We print and produce 600,000+ Virginia Winery Guides annually, so this is a great resume builder for artists and novices alike. The winner will also receive a goodie bag of exciting Virginia freebies, such as T-shirts, wine glasses, etc.).

We are in the market for year-round general shots of VA vineyards, tasting rooms and people enjoying Virginia wines.

Please email your submissions to Amy.Ciarametaro@VirginiaWine.org. In the subject line of your email please note "Virginia Winery Guide Photography Contest." If your file is larger than 3MB, then please do not email the file. Instead, please mail a disk copy to: Amy Ciarametaro, Virginia Wine Board Marketing Office, 1001 E. Broad St., Suite 140, Richmond, VA 23219. By submitting your work, you are agreeing to give the Virginia Wine Board Marketing Office full usage of the photography for any future industry promotions.

All submissions are due by Wednesday, November 28, 2012. The winner will be contacted the first week of December.
